

“Andover High School is committed to providing a safe, supportive, and equitable learning environment where students and staff alike lead by example, demonstrating collaboration, intellectual curiosity, effective communication, and real word application of skills. We believe that promoting physical fitness, co-curricular activities, and student-led initiatives cultivate active minds and foster school pride. We believe strongly in a challenging and diverse curriculum that encourages the creativity, innovation and risk-taking necessary to succeed in a global community.”

DAILY BULLETIN – FRIDAY – DECEMBER 7, 2012 (GOLD DAY)

*Mr. Tim Walsh, a representative from University College Cork in Cork, Ireland will be in the Counseling Office on Tuesday, December 11th at 9:15 to speak with students. *Lost and Found is overflowing. Please check the table outside the main office for any item you think you may have misplaced. All items will be donated if not claimed by the holiday break in December.

*Several years ago, the Foreign Language Department adopted a school in the French speaking country Burkina Faso in Africa. It’s a very poor area where many kids are orphans and struggle to survive. We have been collecting funds to help them purchase school supplies, basic food, and medications. Please come see the display in the Foreign Language hallway. We appreciate your donations. Even if everyone donates just $1, we’ll make a difference in these kids’ lives.

*For those students that ordered class rings Jostens will be in the cafeteria on Tuesday, December 11th during all 3 lunches to deliver them.

*The Mark Bavis Leadership Foundation: The friends and family of Mark Bavis, a victim of the terrorist attack on 9/11, have established a scholarship to preserve his memory and perpetuate the principles by which he lived. All high school students in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts are eligible to apply for these awards ranging from $1,000 to $5,000. This scholarship is not academically based, but is awarded on the basis of need. In addition, the committee will give more serious consideration to those students who have made efforts to make a difference in their communities. Applications are available in the Counseling Office.

*High school junior and senior students are invited to participate in the 2013 Religious Liberty Essay Scholarship Contest. The subject is: "Using the Constitution and writings of the Founders, research and evaluate the claim that the United States was founded as a Christian nation." There are no requirements involving GPA, faith, or activities. The first place winner will receive a $2,000 scholarship and a trip for two to Washington, D.C. Second place - $1,000, and third place $250. Submission deadline is March 1, 2013. Details are available online at www.BJOnline.org/contest and in the Counseling Office.

*The American Legion is sponsoring the “High School Oratorical Scholarship Program,” a constitutional speech contest for high school students who are citizens of or lawful permanent U.S. residents. The purpose: to develop a deeper knowledge and appreciation of the US Constitution, as well as to develop leadership skills, the ability to think and speak clearly and intelligently, and the preparation for acceptance of duties, responsibilities, rights and privileges of American citizenship. The top prize at the state level is $1,000 plus an additional $1,500 when the contestant participates in the national competition. The national awards are $18,000, $16,000 and $14,000 for placing first, second and third. The deadline to apply is December 31, 2012. Additional information and instructions on applying is available in the Counseling Office.

*Andover Auto School’s next driving sessions will be held: Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday evenings from 6pm-8pm from November 6 through December 11 or from January 15th – February 14th. Saturday sessions are available on Saturdays from 8am – 2:30pm from November 17th through December 22nd. Classes will also be held during vacation weeks from December 26th through December 31st from 8am-2:30pm (no class on Sunday) or from February 18th through February 22nd from 8am-2:30pm. *Seniors: Scholarships are now being posted in Naviance in the ‘Scholarship’ section. We will continue to receive scholarships from donors throughout the school year and they will be posted as we receive them. Seniors should refer to Naviance often, and, if you have any questions, please feel free to see Mrs. Wholey in the Counseling Office.

*The Leadership Training Institute, designed for high school students, is a mentoring program founded and run by undergraduate students at MIT. Run during the spring semester beginning in February 2013, the program focuses on teaching high school students the fundamentals of leadership and supplying them with the tools to make a difference in their own communities. Early bird applications are due on November 1st, while regular applications are due on December 12st. If accepted, all students are awarded a full scholarship for this weekly 12-session program. To apply, go to mitlti.org.

*National Honor Society will be in the Café near the snack bar Tuesdays through Fridays from 7:00 am to 7:40 am if any student needs homework help or needs a paper proofread.

*Officer Dowd will be available in his office, room 107-1, everyday between 7:00am to 7:30am and after school from 2:15pm to 3:00pm. He can also be contacted in the lunch room or in the halls, if you need to set up a time to speak with him.

*Attention all block one teachers: Please remember to check your mailbox each morning for orange or blue Guidance passes for your students. If you cannot make it to your mailbox, please designate a student in your block one class to pick up your Guidance passes at 7:45 from your mailbox. This will greatly help the Counseling Department ensure all of their students receive their passes for their appointments all year. Thank you.

*There is NO Parking on Cuba Street between 7:00am – 9:00am. Anyone parked on Cuba Street will be towed and ticketed.

*Any student who finds an illegally parked vehicle in their parking spot please fill out an Incident Parking form in the Main office. Please be sure to have the Plate number of the illegally parked vehicle in your spot and the parking space number you parked in.
