

“The mission of Andover High School is to create an environment in which every student has the opportunity to use his or her mind well to become personally responsible for his or her academic, social, and civic growth and physical growth and physical well-being.”

DAILY BULLETIN – THURSDAY – DECEMBER 19, 2013 (GOLD DAY)

*There will be an informational meeting for students interested in participating in this spring’s regional and state science fairs. The meeting will take place Thursday, Dec 19th in room 323 starting at 2:15 pm. There are some important deadlines coming up as well as a recent rule change that allows students to work in teams with students from other schools anywhere in the world. The meeting will be brief but important – see Mr. Sanborn, Science Program Advisor, if you have questions

*The bible club is collecting blankets and towels for homeless teens in Boston. Please drop off all donations in the cardboard Christmas box located in the foyer. Let’s help some of the several teenagers who must live in the cold.

*The Gaming Club is in urgent need of a club advisor. See Ms. Jordan if you’re interested. Club meetings are postponed pending a club advisor taking over the club.

*Dennis (BJ) Begos, AHS class of 2011, currently attending Carnegie Mellon University, will be in the Counseling Conference Room on Thursday, December 19th at 9:30 to speak with students about his college experiences. If interested please request a pass from Mrs. Wholey in Counseling.

*Scholarship for high school students, grade 9-12: Mark Bavis was a victim of the terrorist attack on September 11, 2001. The Mark Bavis Scholarship was established to preserve his memory and perpetuate the principles by which he lived. High school students in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts are eligible to apply for these awards ranging from $1,000 to $5,000 to be used as specifically requested for school tuition, summer programs and other appropriate extracurricular activities. It is not academically based, but is awarded on the basis of need. In addition, the committee will give more serious consideration to those students who have made efforts to make a difference in their communities. Applications are available in the Counseling Office.

*To all students and parents regarding DISMISSALS: All dismissals require a note before leaving the building unless accompanied by a parent. Parents should have photo ID at time of dismissal. If your child doesn’t have a note, please fax a note to the main office 978-623-8663 or send an email to any of the office secretaries.
