

“The mission of Andover High School is to create an environment in which every student has the opportunity to use his or her mind well to become personally responsible for his or her academic, social, and civic growth and physical growth and physical well-being.”

DAILY BULLETIN – TUESDAY – MAY 20, 2014 (GOLD DAY)

*AP Biology Poster Sessions in the AHS Library on Tues, May 27 from 8:00 – 10:30am and Wed, May 28, from 8:00 – 10:30am. All are welcome.

*From Wednesday, May 14th, to Friday, May 30th, Amnesty International Club will be running a book drive and collecting donations during homeroom in support of aid to the recent current crisis of the Nigerian kidnappings. We plan to donate all profits of the donations we collect to the Malala Fund, an organization founded by Malala Yousafzai to help adolescent girls in developing countries gain back their rights. A box will be placed in the main foyer for collection for the book drive and the books will be donated to a local organization to donate these books to children in need.

*A representative from Manhattanville College in Purchase, NY will be visiting Andover High School to speak with students on Thursday, May 29th at 10:40. If interested, please see Mrs. Wholey in the Counseling Office to request a pass.

*Mandatory Senior Class meeting on Wednesday, May 21st at 8:00am in the Collins Center. Teachers who have only seniors in their class should accompany them to Collins Center. Seniors need to report to Block 1 for attendance and wait for an announcement to be made to report to the Collins Center.

*Juniors! A workshop on essay writing for college applications will be offered on Thursday, May 29 from 2:15 to 3:15pm in the Collins Center. Learn the steps to writing a successful college essay. You must sign up in the guidance office or by emailing LCarrick@aps1.net. This same workshop will be offered again in September but this is an opportunity to start early on this component of the college application process.

*Seniors: An important reminder to check out the many, many scholarships listed in Naviance, keeping in mind that some deadlines are approaching soon. Some examples of scholarship criteria include a student's intended career choice, such as nursing, cardiology, business, teaching, journalism, engineering, culinary/restaurant studies to name a few. In addition, many scholarship criteria are based on the student's community service, or leadership, or being a student/athlete, or financial need ... while many others are very general. It is definitely worth the effort to check them out – remember, “you miss 100% of the shots you never take!” Applications are available in the Counseling Office.

*The Service Club of Andover is now accepting applications for the Career Mentoring Program for AHS juniors. The Service Club will match students with career mentors in fields that they select including sports, journalism, investigative reporting, radio broadcasting, Internet, information technologies, business, engineering and medicine.
