

“The mission of Andover High School is to create an environment in which every student has the opportunity to use his or her mind well to become personally responsible for his or her academic, social, and civic growth and physical growth and physical well-being.”

DAILY BULLETIN – MONDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 2015 (BLUE DAY)

*Fisher College Decision Day has been rescheduled due to the snow storm. It is now scheduled for Thursday, March 5th at 10:40. An admission’s counselor from Fisher College in Boston will be in the Counseling Office. Students are invited to bring their transcript and SAT/ACT test scores for review. You will receive an admissions decision on-the-spot. If interested in scheduling this one-on-one meeting, please sign up with Mrs. Wholey in Counseling.

ATTENTION TO ALL SENIORS AND JUNIORS WHO DRIVE TO SCHOOL – THIS IS A REMINDER THAT YOU NEED TO PARK IN YOUR ASSIGNED SPOTS. CARS THAT ARE FOUND TO BE PARKED ILLEGALLY ARE SUBJECT TO TOWING AT OWNER’S EXPENSE.

The Math department will be sponsoring the American Mathematics Competition on Tuesday, February 3, 2015.* All AHS students taking Enriched Math classes and BC Calculus, past and present are required to participate. The competition will start at approximately 7:45 am and last 90 minutes. Students should go directly to the cafeteria. The cafeteria will be closed during the competition.

All Frost School participants should report to the Library and wait for Ms. Burch.

A representative from Global Public Service Academies (GPSA) will be in the Counseling Office on Tuesday, February 3rd* to speak with students. GPSA for Health is an immersion experience in the developing world where high school students do hands-on health care work while enjoying the benefits of the educational collaboration with Duke and Harvard Universities. They offer 1 – 4 week programs in Guatemala and Belize, countries where high school students can actually make a difference by providing health care in rural communities. For more information, please go to: www.gpsa.org If interested in attending a short presentation, please sign up with Mrs. Wholey in the Counseling Office.

The Greater Boston Experimental Aircraft Association (EAA) is offering an opportunity to students between the ages of 16-18 with an interest in aviation to apply for a EAA youth scholarship. The scholarship provides for an amazing opportunity to attend an aviation-focused camp at EAA's national headquarters in Oshkosh, WI for one week in July of 2015.* The scholarship covers camp tuition and airfare from Boston (in addition to select other New England cities). Applicants do not need to have any experience in aviation but must communicate why they want to attend the camp through their application. For more information, visit their web site listed in this daily bulletin - <http://www.106.eaachapter.org/2015youthscholarship.htm>

10th & 11th grade students: The Massachusetts Office of Student Financial Assistance, a division of the Dept. of Higher Education, is pleased to announce the availability of the 2015 Christian A. Herter Memorial Scholarship for disadvantaged high school students in the 10th or 11th grades who display strong academic promise but whose socio-economic background and environmental conditions may inhibit ability to attain a post secondary education and degree. The deadline to apply is February 6, 2015. Applications are available in the Counseling Office.

*2015 Vermont Young Writers' Conference: High school students are invited to attend a weekend of writing workshops, craft sessions, and open mic at the Champlain College Young Writers' Conference, May 29-30. *Sophomores: The Hugh O'Brian Youth Leadership (HOBY) program is announcing its special seminar for high school sophomores, called the State Leadership Seminar. This program provides youth with unique leadership training to make a better world and a better society. The program strives to follow the HOBY motto of teaching young leaders "how to think, not what to think" – creatively, critically, and compassionately. This 3-day seminar is being held at Bentley University in Waltham on Friday, May 29, 2015 thru Sunday, May 31, 2015. There is a cost associated w/attendance. If interested, please speak to your Guidance Counselor as Andover High School can select 3 students to represent AHS. Applications must be completed and submitted to HOBY by December 5, 2014.

*Sophomores and Juniors: Yale University is sponsoring an intensive academic summer experience for current sophomores and juniors, the "Young Global Scholars Program." They are holding 3 sessions: June 23rd - July 6th (Politics, Law, and Economics); July 9th – July 22nd (International Affairs & Security); and July 25th – August 7th (Science, Policy, and Innovation). All three sessions give high school students opportunities to recognize and understand contemporary global issues, strategize responses, and innovate solutions while learning from renowned practitioners and Yale faculty members in a range of fields.
