Volunteer Opportunities

Compassus Hospice is seeking compassionate individuals interested in a unique life-changing volunteer experience. We will be holding upcoming hospice trainings. Specific dates, times, and location will be chosen based on the availability of our Volunteer-candidates. Volunteer opportunities include visiting patients in assisted living facilities, and in nursing homes located in the Greater Merrimack Valley. Hospice volunteers can use there donated hours as a contribution to internships and community hours and the involvement is a great addition to any aspiring students resume. A complete hospice volunteer training is provided, free of cost, before being assigned into the field. This includes, but is not limited to, topics about the volunteer's role, communication skills, family dynamics, Alzheimer's and dementia, the dying process, bereavement, spiritual care, vigil volunteering and self care. Training is flexible and scheduled based upon the availaility of the volunteer candidates. Please contact Volunteer Coordinator :
