

“The mission of Andover High School is to create an environment in which every student has the opportunity to use his or her mind well to become personally responsible for his or her academic, social, and civic growth and physical growth and physical well-being.”

DAILY BULLETIN – THURSDAY – NOVEMBER 4, 2010 (BLUE DAY)

*Boys' ice hockey meeting on Wednesday, November 10 at 3 p.m. in the Dunn Gym.

*Sign ups for the girls' gymnastics team will be on Friday, November 12 after school in the cafeteria.

*Quest Financial Services of Lynnfield, Massachusetts has created “The Quest for College” scholarship, a $2,500.00 scholarship which will be awarded to a high school student from Essex County, MA. Students will be judged on the basis of a written essay (choice of 3 topics, maximum 1500 words), to be submitted online to rdubee@questfsi.com. Please visit website www.questfsi.com for complete information. The deadline date to apply is January 21, 2011.

*On Wednesday, December 1st, Josten will be in the Café during all 3 lunches to deliver class rings.

*Students in 8th through 11th grade who have an early interest in the Gates Millennium Scholars Program, and who want to learn more about what it takes to be competitive for many scholarship programs and to be successfully admitted to college can register with the Gates Millennium Scholars Imagine program at the GMS website www.gmsp.org and click on the “Online Communities” tab. You will receive regular messaging relevant to each student’s grade level as well as an academic calendar to help you prepare for college.

*Dance Club: There will be a dance club rehearsal TODAY at 2:15 in the Collins Center Lobby. Please make sure you can attend and remember to bring your money for your t-shirt.

*Anyone interested in the Women in Science and Technology Forum on Nov. 5th should see Mrs. Reidy in room 363 as soon as possible for field trip forms.

*There will be a SADD meeting tonight November 4th at 6:30 in the library. Please join us for our first meeting as we plan out the year, we would love your input. If you have any questions please see Mrs. Breen or Mrs. McVeigh in the health office.

*Gap Year Fairs, sponsored by Dynamy Internship Year, will be held on November 14th and again on January 23rd, both in Boston. Complete information can be found online at www.usagapyearfairs.org

*On Saturday, November 6th, Boston College is inviting high school students to their campus for a free one-day event called “BC Splash.” Students can take a wide variety of classes all taught by BC undergraduates who are passionate in the class they are teaching. This is a great opportunity for high school students because you will get the chance to be immersed in the college environment for a day, connect with current undergrads, and learn about things that would never be offered at your high school. Students can take up to 5 classes throughout the day. For more information and to register, go to: bcsplash.learningu.org. You can also contact the Splash team at bcsplash@gmail.com or by calling 617-297-7524.

*National Honor Society is offering morning tutoring on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays from 7:05 am-7:40 am in room 203. Students may drop in for help in any academic area. No appointment is necessary. Please contact Mr. Shea for more details.

*Do you like to knit, sew or make your own things? Come to the Crafts Club which meets every Thursday after school in room 343.

*The U.S. House of Representatives is announcing their 2011 Spring Page Program and looking for high school juniors to apply for nomination. This summer program includes both a school and work experience. Pages serve as support staff to the Members of the House of Representatives. Students experience living, studying, and working in Washington, D.C. and will earn a salary.
