

“The mission of Andover High School is to create an environment in which every student has the opportunity to use his or her mind well to become personally responsible for his or her academic, social, and civic growth and physical growth and physical well-being.”

DAILY BULLETIN – THURSDAY – MARCH 10, 2011 (BLUE DAY)

*There will be a Project TeamWork meeting next Tuesday, 3/15, right after school in the Media Center. New members are always welcomed. Project TeamWork supports the Oasis House for battered Women and their children in Lawrence.

* Sign ups for the SADD Madness Tournament are going on now at the kiosk in the café during all three lunches. The tournament takes place March 18th at 2:30 and the fee is $15 per team. Only one varsity basketball player per team allowed. We are looking forward to a great Friday afternoon of basketball!

*Want to be informed about your school’s strengths and needs? Get involved, and join a committee for the 2012 accreditation process. Any interested sophomore please put your name in the sign-up box located in the main office.

*On Sunday, March 27th, the student government at Boston College is planning a one-day event, called Splash, where high school students can come to the BC campus and take a wide range of classes taught by BC undergraduates. The goal is to show high school students that learning can be fun and exciting by giving them the opportunity to take something that would never be offered at their high school and by connecting them with college students who are passionately pursuing their own education. This is a rare opportunity to be immersed in the college environment in ways that are unavailable on normal college campus tours. Please visit website at <http://bcsplash.learningu.org> and click on the blue button that says “Learning” to register and for additional information.

*The American Legion, Dept. of Massachusetts is sponsoring a “Student Trooper Program” for young adults, ages 15 thru 17. This program is designed to expose young adults to the demands of police training and to develop better relationships between the youth of our communities and the police that serve them. This one-week summer program, which is mentally and physically demanding, will be held at the Massachusetts State Police Academy in New Braintree. The sponsorship fee is $300.00. Additional information and applications are available in the Counseling Office. The deadline to apply is April 30, 2011.

* Calling all dancers! Any dancers interested in performing in the AHS Dance Show on Friday, April 1st, we need solos, duets, group numbers of any kind of dance: hip-hop, modern, ballet, tap, Indian, Chinese, and more. See Ms. Bergey in Guidance to sign up!

* After school Fitness Room Hours - March 2nd-18th will be open on Monday, Wednesday, Thursday & Friday’s from 2:25 – 3:30. *EXCEPT TUESDAY’S 2:05-3:15 (March 2nd - April 26th)

The Laramie Project is a play by Moisés Kaufman and members of the Tectonic Theater Project about the reaction to the 1998 murder of University of Wyoming gay student Matthew Shepard in Laramie, Wyoming. The murder was denounced as a hate crime motivated by homophobia and brought attention to the lack of hate crimes laws in various states, including Wyoming. The play draws on hundreds of interviews conducted by the theatre company with inhabitants of the town, company members’ own journal entries and published news reports. Thirteen actors portray more than sixty characters in a series of short scenes.

*Seniors: The Dollars for Scholars Scholarship application is now available in the Counseling Office. You will be considered for multiple awards by completing this one application. Scholarships are awarded on the basis of need and/or merit for full time students pursuing their first undergraduate degree in an accredited two or four year program of study. The criteria is based on academics, extracurricular and community service.

*The American Red Cross and Greater Lawrence Technical School are co-sponsoring a Lifeguard Training class for high school students. Candidates must be 15 years old. Registration forms are available in the main office or visit the Greater Lawrence Technical High School website www.gltstec.ma.us to register online.

*Reminder to seniors: Don't forget to check out the "Scholarship" section in our Naviance program. There are 32 active scholarships listed and more to come. Also, take a minute to look at the Scholarship Board in the Counseling Office as they are all listed there as well.

*Lawrence General Hospital Volunteer Services Department is again offering a summer program for high school juniors and seniors who are interested in pursuing a medical career. The "Shadow-a-Professional" program allows students a chance to explore career options and gain experience to add to a resume when applying to college or seeking paid employment. This highly competitive program has only 20 positions available. Applications are available in the Counseling Office. Deadline to apply is Monday, April 25th.

*Please join us for a SADD meeting Thursday night at 6:30 in room 370. Speaker Greg Afarian will be there to talk about the dangers of drinking and driving. All are welcome.

*All students in grades 8 through 12 are invited to participate in the "National Teen Leadership Program," a weekend leadership training program which will be held on July 15-17, 2011 at Endicott College in Beverly, Mass. This weekend is jam-packed with motivational speakers, quality workshops and numerous small group discussions designed to inspire, instruct and promote teamwork, diversity, communication skills and generally instill important leadership concepts. For more information, testimonials, and application instructions please go to www.ntlp.org. Information is also available in the Counseling Office.

*The "National Teen Leadership Program" (NTLP) is also offering a powerful one-day Diversity Day event on Saturday, March 26, 2011 at City Year in Boston. This program is thought-provoking, insightful, intense and helps eliminate bullying, hate speech and intolerance. More information is available at <http://www.ntlp.org> and in the Counseling Office.
