

“Andover High School is committed to providing a safe, supportive, and equitable learning environment where students and staff alike lead by example, demonstrating collaboration, intellectual curiosity, effective communication, and real word application of skills. We believe that promoting physical fitness, co-curricular activities, and student-led initiatives cultivate active minds and foster school pride. We believe strongly in a challenging and diverse curriculum that encourages the creativity, innovation and risk-taking necessary to succeed in a global community.”

DAILY BULLETIN – FRIDAY – OCTOBER 19, 2012 (BLUE DAY)

*The Leadership Training Institute, designed for high school students, is a mentoring program founded and run by undergraduate students at MIT. Run during the spring semester beginning in February 2013, the program focuses on teaching high school students the fundamentals of leadership and supplying them with the tools to make a difference in their own communities. Early bird applications are due on November 1st, while regular applications are due on December 12st. If accepted, all students are awarded a full scholarship for this weekly 12-session program. To apply, go to mitli.org.

* Important PSAT Announcement: All students who registered for the PSAT Test on Saturday, October 20th need to report to the high school by 7:50. The doors will lock at 8:00, and once the testing starts, students will not be allowed to enter the testing area. The test will end at approximately 11:45. If it rains students may wait in the main lobby area. Students should bring 2 pencils and a math calculator with them. Room assignments will be posted on the windows in the front of the building and in the main lobby. No electronic devices or cell phones may be used during the test or the break time. If you are seen using any of these devices or if these devices make any sound, you will be asked to leave and your answer sheet will not be submitted.
