

“The mission of Andover High School is to create an environment in which every student has the opportunity to use his or her mind well to become personally responsible for his or her academic, social, and civic growth and physical growth and physical well-being.”

DAILY BULLETIN – FRIDAY – DECEMBER 6, 2013 (BLUE DAY)

* Dina Roumeliotis, an AHS 2013 graduate, and currently a student at Rollins College, will be in the Counseling Office to speak with students and share her college experiences, on Wednesday, December 18th at 9:30. If interested, please ask Mrs. Wholey for a pass.

*Looking for holiday gifts? Interested in AHS-themed clothing? Want to support the AHS PAC? Then come to the AHS PAC Holiday Fair on Monday, December 9th from 7pm-9pm in the AHS Cafeteria. We are going to have a variety of SpiritWear items for sale, including cotton T-shirts, sweat pants, flannel pants, basketball shorts, ¾ zip fleece and hoodies. We have both brand new items and some old favorites in a variety of sizes. Some other AHS clubs and organizations will also be at the fair. Hope to see you there!!

* Reminder to Seniors: Don't forget to frequently check out the scholarship listings on Naviance. During the course of the winter and early spring, the Counseling Office will receive over 200 scholarships from national, regional, local and private sources, with some deadlines coming soon. All will be listed on Naviance as we receive them. One example: right now Cumberland Farms “Believe & Achieve Scholarship” is offering up to 130 awards at $1,000 each to seniors across its 11-state service area. This deadline is fast approaching .... December 15th. Check out the criteria on Naviance.

*The Gaming Club is in urgent need of a club advisor. See Ms. Jordan if you're interested. Club meetings are postponed pending a club advisor taking over the club.

*Kaplan Test Prep is offering a Season of Thanks Sale on all their offerings until December 17th. Save $150.00 on SAT and ACT test prep courses. This is the best discount of the year. Call 1-800-527-8378 or online at kaptest.com/thanks to register. Enter promo code: THANKS150 at checkout.

*Dennis (BJ) Begos, AHS class of 2011, currently attending Carnegie Mellon University, will be in the Counseling Conference Room on Thursday, December 19th at 9:30 to speak with students about his college experiences. If interested please request a pass from Mrs. Wholey in Counseling.

*Scholarship for high school students, grade 9-12: Mark Bavis was a victim of the terrorist attack on September 11, 2001. The Mark Bavis Scholarship was established to preserve his memory and perpetuate the principles by which he lived. High school students in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts are eligible to apply for these awards ranging from $1,000 to $5,000 to be used as specifically requested for school tuition, summer programs and other appropriate extracurricular activities. It is not academically based, but is awarded on the basis of need. In addition, the committee will give more serious consideration to those students who have made efforts to make a difference in their communities. Applications are available in the Counseling Office.

*To all students and parents regarding DISMISSALS: All dismissals require a note before leaving the building unless accompanied by a parent. Parents should have photo ID at time of dismissal. If your child doesn't have a note, please fax a note to the main office 978-623-8663 or send an email to any of the office secretaries.
