

"The mission of Andover High School is to create an environment in which every student has the opportunity to use his or her mind well to become personally responsible for his or her academic, social, and civic growth and physical growth and physical well-being."

DAILY BULLETIN – THURSDAY – JANUARY 16, 2014 (GOLD DAY)

*The Colleen Ritzer Scholarship Fund Candlepin Bowling Tournament will take place on Sunday, Jan. 26 at the Woburn Bowladrome. The tournament, which will start at noon, consists of teams of four players and will include a 100 percent handicap to make it fair for players of all abilities. Entry fee is $120 per team with prizes going to the top teams including sports tickets and restaurant gift certificates. Space for this event is limited. You can make your own team and do not have to be in a league to participate. Individuals can also enter at $30 and they will be put on a team. To register, or for more information, call Shawn Marciello at 978-853-0666.

*This is the last full week to order a 2014 Yearbook. See Miss Rickley in Room 351 if you want a yearbook in June. We will not be ordering extra yearbooks this year so do not miss out!

*A representative from Global Public Service Academies (GPSA) will be in the Counseling Conference Room on Tuesday, February 4th at 12:00 to speak with interested students. GPSA is a 4-week medical career experience for high school students. It is an immersion experience in the developing world where high school students do hands on medical work while enjoying the benefits of the educational collaboration of Duke and Harvard Universities. If you would like to learn more about this program, please see Mrs. Wholey in the Counseling Office for a pass.

*The Service Club of Andover is now accepting applications for the Career Mentoring Program for AHS juniors. The Service Club will match students with career mentors in fields that they select including sports, journalism, investigative reporting, radio broadcasting, Internet, information technologies, business, engineering and medicine. The Club and AHS will be approving 35 applications for the program of the 50 applications accepted. For additional information and applications, go to <http://serviceclubofandover.org>
