

“The mission of Andover High School is to create an environment in which every student has the opportunity to use his or her mind well to become personally responsible for his or her academic, social, and civic growth and physical growth and physical well-being.”

DAILY BULLETIN – WEDNESDAY – NOVEMBER 3, 2010 (GOLD DAY)

*Attention Seniors: Anyone interested in playing or cheerleading in Powder Puff Football must register Wednesday, November 3rd at 2:05 in the cafeteria. You must have $10 cash or check with you to register.

*Anyone interested in the Women in Science and Technology Forum on Nov. 5th should see Mrs. Reidy in room 363 as soon as possible for field trip forms.

*There will be a SADD meeting this Thursday night November 4th at 6:30 in the library. Please join us for our first meeting as we plan out the year, we would love your input. If you have any questions please see Mrs. Breen or Mrs. McVeigh in the health office.

*Gap Year Fairs, sponsored by Dynamy Internship Year, will be held on November 14th and again on January 23rd, both in Boston. Complete information can be found online at www.usagapyearfairs.org

*On Saturday, November 6th, Boston College is inviting high school students to their campus for a free one-day event called “BC Splash.” Students can take a wide variety of classes all taught by BC undergraduates who are passionate in the class they are teaching. This is a great opportunity for high school students because you will get the chance to be immersed in the college environment for a day, connect with current undergrads, and learn about things that would never be offered at your high school. Students can take up to 5 classes throughout the day. For more information and to register, go to: bcsplash.learningu.org. You can also contact the Splash team at bcsplash@gmail.com or by calling 617-297-7524.

*There is a mandatory meeting for the mock trial team on Wednesday, Nov. 3 at 2:15 in the media center! You must see Ms. Carrick or Ms. Berard if you cannot attend this meeting! We will begin to discuss this year’s case.

*National Honor Society is offering morning tutoring on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays from 7:05 am-7:40 am in room 203. Students may drop in for help in any academic area. No appointment is necessary. Please contact Mr. Shea for more details.

* Attention Yearbook Business Staff: Our next meeting will be after school on Wednesday, November 3rd. The yearbook photo staff will be taking our yearbook club photo. You must come to Room 228 by 2:15 to be included in this photo. Bring your ads with you to this meeting.

*Do you like to knit, sew or make your own things? Come to the Crafts Club which meets every Thursday after school in room 343.

*The U.S. House of Representatives is announcing their 2011 Spring Page Program and looking for high school juniors to apply for nomination. This summer program includes both a school and work experience. Pages serve as support staff to the Members of the House of Representatives. Students experience living, studying, and working in Washington, D.C. and will earn a salary. Eligibility requirements: 3.0 GPA or higher; U.S. citizen or subject to the agreements of the Dept. of State and possess a valid social security card; must be 16 years old by the beginning of the Page term, but no older than 17.
